CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR SOCIETY.

The official report of the recent eleventh convention of the Young Peoples Society of Christian Endeavor, just published, furnishes some very interesting data.

Less than ten years ago this society had a total membership of 500. Now it numbers nearly a million and a half. The amazing growth may be partly due to the breadth and liberality of the conditions admitting to membership.

Some time ago an able editor in New York, following the lead of an able magazine writer, composed a rather grumpy editorial discussing the sentiments existing between America and England.

Strong confidence is felt at the state department that, in view of the president's deep interest in the matter, of the long confinement which the prisoners have already suffered and of their certified good character in the United States, the present Gladstone government will listen favorably to the appeal of the government of the United States and grant the imprisoned Irish-Americans liberty to return to the country of their adoption.

The Siletz reservation has 180,000 acres, for which the government propose to pay $142,000, or about eighty cents per acre. A large portion of this is fine timber land, the farming land all having been allotted.

A grain blockade is threatened at Tacoma. Wheat from eastern Washington arrives at the rate of about 125 carloads every twenty-four hours, and the elevator and warehouse accommodations are not sufficient for such a large supply.

WAS IT A LANDSLIDE?

It was an avalanche, and the republicans have alighted, dismounted, got down. The figures in the electoral college resemble those of 1860 when the democracy was put to flight by the result of the election which changed the administration for the first time in many years.

W. T. Stead, editor of The Review of Reviews, has taken up with his accustomed vigor the cause of Mrs. Maybrick, the hapless American woman now lying in Woking prison because she either did or did not poison her husband, and the English lawyers have never been able to find out whether she did or not.

Mrs. Nat Collins has arrived at Choteau from Chicago. She has been east with two cars loads of beef steers. This is Mrs. Collins' second trip east with cattle, her first experience having been made last season.

Governor Penoyer has made the following appointments to membership of the state board of agriculture: S. H. Holt, of Phoenix, to succeed himself, he having been appointed about a year ago to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of D. S. K. Buick.

The run of salmon in the lower Columbia has been unusually large this fall and many have been taken. The Telegram reports that recently two fishermen on the Cowlitz river succeeded in capturing 710 salmon in two hours.

A grain blockade is threatened at Tacoma. Wheat from eastern Washington arrives at the rate of about 125 carloads every twenty-four hours, and the elevator and warehouse accommodations are not sufficient for such a large supply.

Active preparations are being made at Everett for the construction of the new wharfbank which is to be put together there this winter. The steamer will be 300 feet in length and as it will require some time for its completion it will furnish work for a large number of men for some months.

Two porkers recently marketed in Spangle weighed, when dressed, 719 pounds. They were but a little more than a year old and the finest ever marketed there for that age.

Set it down for a fact that Cleveland will be the next president of the United States. It is a bitter pill for republicans to swallow, but it is rolled out at a time when the country is in the most prosperous condition it was ever known to be.

Experiments are to be made at Tacoma with an electric road on which its inventor claims cars will be able to make 200 miles an hour. The track will be completed and tests will be made by the 10th.

The Fence of the Future.

There are a number of strong points in favor of the Tuna Hedge as the fence of the future, the advantage of this kind of a fence may be briefly enumerated as follows: It becomes a perfect barrier against all kinds of domestic animals after three years growth; does not sap or impoverish the ground, being a strictly atmospheric plant, and will not grow from the seed or by cutting the roots hence will not spread, it grows only to a certain uniform height and therefore does not require trimming, it has been thoroughly and successfully tested in northern climates and does not kill out in the winter time, it serves the double purpose of usefulness and ornamentation, as it is an evergreen and blooms during three months of the year, an invitation is extended to thoroughly test its merits, and every one will be convinced that it possesses all the advantages claimed for it.
